Illinois Joining Forces Presents: Military & Veterans Night Out at Caterpillar Visitors Center

Join Us for an Evening of Family Fun and Community Engagement

Peoria, IL – As we enter Military Family Month this November, Illinois Joining Forces (IJF) is thrilled to announce a highly anticipated event, the Military & Veterans Night Out at Caterpillar Visitors Center, which will take place on Friday, November 17, from 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm. This event is designed to bring together Service Members, Veterans, and their Families for an unforgettable night of activities, resource networking, and shared experiences.

"Illinois Joining Forces is proud to host this extraordinary event for the military and Veterans in Central Illinois, utilizing our extensive network of service providers. Through events like these, we ensure that Veterans and their families across the region have access to the support they've earned. By coming together, we positively impact the lives of Veterans, Service Members, and their Families, especially during the heart of Military Family Month," said Brenda Osuch, Executive Director of Illinois Joining Forces.

The event promises a diverse range of attractions, including access to the Caterpillar Visitors Center, face painting, a special World War II exhibit by Caterpillar, and simulators. Attendees can connect with service providers and gain insights into invaluable local resources. As a special treat, all guests will enjoy a complimentary dinner served from 5:30 pm to 7:00 pm
